Australian Rugby Sevens player quiz

Australia has a Women's Rugby Sevens and Men's Rugby Sevens Team. Each team has profiles on each team member. Read the player profiles for Australian Rugby Sevens players Emilee Cherry and Shannon Walker below. Then see if you can answer all of the quiz questions correctly!

Emilee Cherry

Wing

Profile
Height:	168cm
Weight:	70kg
Date Of Birth:	02/11/1992
Place of Birth:	Roma, Australia

Rugby Career
Senior Club:	Toowoomba Bears, QLD

More information about Emilee Cherry
Hometown: Toowoomba, QLD
Representative honours: Touch Football Australia, Aussie Pearls, Australian Sevens (2011-)
Debut: Dubai 2011 v Brazil
Caps: 11
Points: 187 (37T, 1C)

Winner of the 2012 ARU Women's Player of the Year award, Emilee Cherry has burst onto the Australian Sevens scene thanks to her blistering pace and natural read of the game. Named the 2011 Darling Downs Senior Sports Star of the Year, Cherry made her debut for the Australia Sevens during the first-ever IRB-Sanctioned Women's Sevens Challenge Cup in Dubai.

Prior to earning a spot in the Australian Women's Sevens, Cherry captained the Australian Under-20 Touch Football side and competed with the Australia Sevens domestic side, the Aussie Pearls. Cherry's involvement in the Australian Women's Sevens has grown in 2013 as she was rewarded for her performances with the captaincy for the first day of the IRB Women's Sevens World Series

QUIZ

1. Who is older? Emilee Cherry or Shannon Walker?
2. What are two things both players have in common?
3. What is the name of the Australian domestic women's sevens team?
4. Who has a famous cousin (and who is the famous cousin)?
5. When did Emilee Cherry make her debut in Rugby Sevens?
6. What prevented Shannon from starting his sevens career earlier?
7. Who is tallest out of the two players, and by how much?
8. Who has held a role as Captain of an Australian Sevens team?
9. Who was born in New South Wales, Australia?
10. What are some adjectives used to describe Shannon's speed?

More information about Shannon Walker
Hometown: Kyogle, NSW
Representative honours: Australian Rugby League Schoolboys (2006), Junior Kangaroos Rugby League (2007), National Rugby League (2008-11), Australia Sevens (2012-)
Debut: Hong Kong 2012 v France
Caps: 8
Points: 80 (16T)

Shannon walker joined the Australian Rugby ranks in August 2011 after an early exit from the NRL's Gold Coast Titans due to injury. After missing out on the start of the 2011-2012 World Series and missing his much anticipated debut at the inaugural Gold Coast Sevens tournament as a result of injury, Walker got the nod to make his debut in Hong Kong. He went on to play Hong Kong and Tokyo, scoring a double against Samoa to help lead Australia to a Cup final win in Tokyo.

A cousin of NRL player Ken Nagas, Walker is renowned for his electric pace and slippery footwork. Walker is also a member of a large family, with four brothers, four sisters and a daughter of his own.

Shannon Walker

Wing

Profile
Height:	174cm
Weight:	82kg
Date Of Birth:	25/11/1988
Place of Birth:	Kyogle, Australia

Challenge Activity!

Develop your own ten question quiz about one or more Australian Sevens player/s.

For more Australian Rugby Sevens player profiles go to: http://www.rugby.com.au/sevens/Home.aspx