

Promoting life values to youth in the Pacific region through rugby union

ADOPT A SCHOOL PROGRAM

ATTENTION AUSTRALIAN JUNIOR RUGBY CLUBS

Connect with a rugby school from Papua New Guinea, Samoa, Solomon Islands or Tonga!

The Pacific in Union program is an initiative of Australian Rugby Union (ARU), International Rugby Board (iRB) and the Australian Government aiming to promote values, healthy lifestyles, diversity, leadership and teamwork to school children across the Pacific region through rugby union-themed classroom, field and festival activities.

The Adopt a School program invites Australian junior rugby clubs to connect with a school from Papua New Guinea, Samoa, Solomon Islands or Tonga and participate in one or more of the following activities:

DONATIONS and FUNDRAISING

- Donating second-hand resources e.g. set of rugby jerseys, rugby balls, and/or rugby playing equipment to adopted school;
- Fundraising to support adopted school purchase educational resources and/or build school infrastructure to support classroom and/or rugby activities.

EXCHANGES

- Junior club rugby teams participating in an exchange in Australia or overseas with teams from their adopted school.
- Junior (or senior) club coaches sharing ideas with school rugby coaches in person as part of an exchange or via relevant communication channels e.g. phone, mail, internet, other.

OTHER

Any other creative ways of connecting with adopted schools!
